I. PREPARATION

1. Thesis Type and Topics

- Types of Thesis are distinguished based on the guidance track, which are Non-Class and Internship.
- Below are the different types of Thesis:

Table 1. Differences in Non-Class and Internship Guidance Tracks

Information	Non-Class	Internship
Guidance processing time	Time for thesis guidance according to the agreement between the student and thesis advisor (minimum 10x guidance meetings)	Time for thesis guidance according to the agreement between the student, thesis advisor and partners
The topics are determined/opened by each program in KRSS	No	No
The number of interested students who took the topic during the KRSS filling period met the minimum capacity for class opening	No	No
Students have time according to the Thesis advisor on the class schedule	No	No
Number of Thesis advisor	1	2 (from study programs and partners)

 Internship is only opened every Odd Semester

- Internship Partners can come from Study Programs or students (need approval from the Program).

2. Group Formation and KRS Registration

- Thesis Registration is taking thesis courses on student Study Plan Cards (KRS). In order to do this, certain conditions must be met, including:
 - Final GPA $\geq 2,00$
(specifically for students who are taking the thesis together with the Enrichment Program, the final GPA ≥ 2.75)
 - The requirements for the number of credits are as follows:
 - Cumulative credits that have been taken : X credits
 - Current credits : Y credits
(does not include remedial courses/D grades, course CHAR6030-Character Building: Pancasila grade C)
 - Credits to be taken/taken together with the thesis : Z credits
(does not include remedial courses/D grades, course CHAR6030-Character Building: Pancasila grade C and $Z \leq 19$ credits (if the thesis is taken together with the Enrichment Program then $Z \leq 22$ credits))
Total earned (X+Y+Z) ≥ 146 credits
- Student can compose their thesis in a way:
 - Individual, one student composes one Thesis.
 - Groups, by forming groups consisting of as many as 3 (three) students. This group must have been formed before completing the Study Plan Card (KRS) and must enter the same class when filling out the KRS.
- After filling in the KRS, Student Registration & Services will announce the non-class Thesis path.

II. WRITING THESIS

1. Making Outlines

- An outline is made after students register their thesis in KRS.
- Outline submission requirements:
 - a. Non-class Thesis guidance track: the outline is collected to Study Program, the deadline is determined by the Study Program. For non-class thesis, the Program will appoint an appropriate Advisor based on the Thesis topic in the outline and students are required to submit the outline to the Advisor.
 - b. Internship Guidance Track: an outline is collected to the Study Program, the deadline is determined by the Study Program.
- The complete format of the outline consists of:
 - a. Background.
 - b. What will be made/written/discussed/worked on.
 - c. Scope.
 - d. Objectives and benefits.
 - e. Research methodology.
 - f. The most critical problem.

On the cover page of the Non-class and Internship Thesis outline, information on the path of the proposed Thesis is included.

2. Thesis Compilation and Guidance Period

- The thesis preparation/guidance period is 13 weeks, and the start of guidance is the same as the start of lectures. The Internship path can start guidance earlier than lectures.
- Requirements for non-class Thesis guidance, including:
 - a. Guidance is carried out based on an agreement between the student and the thesis advisor.
 - b. Thesis guidance activities are carried out at least 10 (ten) times as evidenced by the thesis advisor 's signature on the consultation book, if the thesis advisor 's signature is less than the requirements above, students are not entitled to collect soft covers.
- Requirements for Internship Thesis guidance, including:
 - a. The guidance process is divided into two:
 - During the workshop at least 3 times (during the Internship process) at:
 1. 40 hours Internship
 2. 100 hours Internship
 3. 192 hours Internship
 - At the time of preparing the writing of the thesis report, namely guidance by the thesis advisor (at least 10 times).
 - b. The two guidance processes are proven by the thesis advisor 's signature on the consultation book.
 - b. If the number of working hours and/or the signature of the Thesis Advisor is less than the above requirements, the student is declared ineligible, there is no need to submit soft covers (which contain Internship reports).
- The consultation book can be obtained by downloading the "Consultation Book" at <http://binusmaya.binus.ac.id> Menu Support » Download Center » Thesis/Internship

▪ Writing process

1. Non-class Thesis

a. Outline Submission

- Thesis outline must be submitted by students to the Study Program 1 (one) month before lectures for the current semester period, the deadline is determined by the Study Program.
- The Study Program will examine and determine the feasibility of the topic to be advanced as a thesis.

- If the topic is declared ELIGIBLE, the Study Program will issue a Surat Penunjukkan Pembimbing (SPP) which can be downloaded on the Binusmaya menu Learning >> Thesis >> Download Center, no later than the first day of class.

b. Guidance Process

- The guidance schedule is arranged jointly based on an agreement between the Thesis Advisor and students.
- Every meeting with the Thesis Advisor, students are required to bring a consultation book and the Thesis Advisor signs the absence of the consultation.

c. Determination of Eligibility, Legitimation and Assessment of Thesis

- The eligibility of non-class Thesis is determined by the Thesis Advisor based on:
 1. Readiness and completeness of thesis content
 2. Number of consultation meetings (minimum 10 (ten) times)
- The Thesis Advisor will provide recommendations and sign the recommendation sheet in the consultation book..
- If the student's thesis is ELIGIBLE according to the requirements above, then the Thesis Advisor: signs the Soft Cover Approval Page
- The Study Program will ratify the recommendation sheet that has been signed by the Thesis Advisor.
- If the thesis is declared INELIGIBLE, then the student cannot submit soft covers for that semester. Furthermore, they must immediately register their thesis in the following semester and can still use the same title. Extension recommendations for non-class Thesis are valid for 3 (three) consecutive semesters. If more than 3 (three) semesters, the student must change the thesis title.
- Thesis grades are individual grades, not group grades.
- Thesis grades from guidance activities will be given directly by the Thesis Advisor to Student Registration & Services.

2. Internship

a. Outline Submission

- Outlines are submitted only by students who wish to do Internship where partners come from student proposals, no later than 1 (one) month before lectures start according to the academic calendar, the deadline is determined by the Study Program.
- Outline is used by the Study Program as a consideration in giving approval to partners proposed by students.
- If the partner proposed by the student is approved, the Study Program will issue a Surat Penunjukkan Pembimbing (SPP).

b. Guidance Process

- The guidance schedule is arranged jointly based on an agreement between the Advisors from the Program or partners and students.
- Every meeting with the Thesis Advisor, students are required to bring a consultation book and the Thesis Advisor signs the absence of the consultation.

c. Determination of Eligibility, Legitimation and Assessment of Thesis

- Internship eligibility is determined by the Program based on:
 1. Number of working hours at the Internship.
 2. Number of consultation meetings (minimum 10 (ten) times).
- If the Internship is declared ELIGIBLE according to the requirements above, then the Thesis Advisor and Partner Advisor sign the Soft Cover Approval Page.
- If the Internship is declared INELIGIBLE, then the student cannot submit soft covers for that semester. Furthermore, they must immediately register the thesis in the following semester.
- Internship grades are individual grades, not group grades.

5. Graduation

- Students who are entitled to graduate are those who meet the graduation requirements.
- Student graduation announcements can be seen on the website <http://binusmaya.binus.ac.id> menu News Stream.

- Students can see a detailed graduation schedule on <http://binusmaya.binus.ac.id> menu Graduation >> *Graduation Status & Schedule.
- In the graduation announcement, the names of students who are allowed to take part in the graduation ceremony will be announced, namely students who have completed all their academic and administrative obligations. Students whose names are not listed in the announcement of graduation participants are not accepted for registration for that graduation period and must attend the next graduation period if all obligations have been completed.
- The implementation of the Graduation follows the schedule set by Bina Nusantara University, which will be held on:
 - Odd Semester: April and June/July
 - Even Semester: October and November/December.
