

BINUS Delegation Visited Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia

On January 21, BINUS UNIVERSITY Graduate Program delegation led by Prof. Gerardus Polla, Director of BINUS Graduate Program, paid a visit to Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM) and was welcomed by Prof. Dr. Imran Ho Abdullah, Director of International Relations Centre of UKM. The delegation also met with relevant staff members from the Graduate Program of Information Science and Technology. During their visit at UKM, BINUS Graduate Program learned and exchanged ideas on improving the Master and Doctoral of both universities. The two parties also had an in-depth discussion on educational collaboration between the two universities.

Founded in 1970, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia is a public university located in Bangi, Selangor. Also known as the National University of Malaysia, UKM is one of five research universities in the country and safeguards the sovereignty of the Malay language while globalizing knowledge in the context of local culture.
